

The New York Times
NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 2001
19 CENTS

U.S. ATTACKED

HIJACKED JETS DESTROY TWIN TOWERS AND HIT PENTAGON IN DAY OF TERROR

A CREEPING HORROR

Buildings Burn and Fall as Evacuators Search for Elusive Safety

By N. S. RAYNER
The planes were seen by a large number of people, mostly in the vicinity of the towers, and many of them were seen to be flying in a tight formation. Some of the witnesses reported that they saw the planes hit the towers and that they saw the towers begin to burn and to fall. The planes were seen to be flying in a tight formation, and many of the witnesses reported that they saw the planes hit the towers and that they saw the towers begin to burn and to fall.

President Vows to Exact Punishment for 'Evil'

By MICHAEL GOODMAN
The White House announced on Wednesday that President Bush has ordered a search for the hijackers of the planes that crashed into the World Trade Center towers and the Pentagon. The president said that he would "pursue a course of justice that will bring the perpetrators to justice and ensure that the United States is never again attacked in this way."

A Sombre Bush Says Terrorism Cannot Prevail

By ELIZABETH BISHOP
President Bush said Wednesday that the Sept. 11 attacks were a "sombre day" for the United States, but that the country would not be "defeated" by terrorism. He said that the United States would continue to fight for freedom and justice, and that the country would not be "defeated" by terrorism.

Awaiting the Aftershocks

Washington and Nation Prepare for Flight With Evacuees Hard to Identify and Punish

By N. S. RAYNER
The United States is preparing for a wave of aftershocks in the days and weeks following the Sept. 11 attacks. The government is preparing for a wave of aftershocks in the days and weeks following the Sept. 11 attacks. The government is preparing for a wave of aftershocks in the days and weeks following the Sept. 11 attacks.

WIDE ON THE ATTACK

By N. S. RAYNER
The United States is preparing for a wave of aftershocks in the days and weeks following the Sept. 11 attacks. The government is preparing for a wave of aftershocks in the days and weeks following the Sept. 11 attacks. The government is preparing for a wave of aftershocks in the days and weeks following the Sept. 11 attacks.