In later years, when such gifts were given (including simply a complimentary statement or a rendered service of some kind), rewards were expected. This created problems for the church and Saint Leo IX (Pope from 1049 to 1054) worked hard to stop this practice. He created several regulations against simony. His picture is shown above. A related problem during this time was the "Investiture Conflict" between nobles and the church over the appointment of bishops in this manner. Unfortunately, despite church reform efforts many people received favors based on their gifts to the church during the time of and for many years after the Middle Ages. Works Cited "Pope Leo IX." Wikimedia Commons. 07 Dec. 2007.
